

Life After Fifty

Responsibilities of Membership and Code of Conduct

Welcome to Life After Fifty. People from many different backgrounds share this environment. Centres for Seniors Windsor O/A Life After Fifty adheres to the Human Rights Code which declares that “every person has the right to equal treatment without discrimination because of race, ancestry, place of origin, colour, ethnic origin, citizenship, creed, sex, sexual orientation, age, marital status, family status, handicap or the receipt of public assistance.”

All members and visitors of the Centres have the right to be treated with dignity and respect. All members and visitors of the Centres have the responsibility to treat others with dignity and respect.

To guide staff, members and volunteers in carrying out their responsibilities and duties in a fair and respectful manner, the Board of Directors has adopted the:

Rotary International “4-Way Test” Is it the truth? Is it fair to all concerned?
Will it build goodwill and better friendships? Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
